CONDOMS
A latex or membrane sheath that fits over the penis and is used for protection against unwanted pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, and AIDS.

ANAL SEX
The penetration of the anus with the penis.

SAFE SEX
Using proper caution during sexual contact to avoid transmission of STDs, including HIV.

K-Y JELLY
A water-based lubricant recommended for use with condoms and other contraceptives as well as during uncomfortable penetration.

SAFE SEX
Transmission of diseases, and AIDS. A latex or membrane sheath that fits over the penis and is used for protection against unwanted pregnancy, sexually.
HUGGING

The holding and caressing of another to communicate love, affection, and/or desire.

RIMMING

The use of the mouth and/or tongue on or in another person’s anus.

DENTAL DAM

A sheath placed in the mouth or over the vagina to avoid contact with body fluids during oral stimulation.

GAY

A male homosexual, i.e., a man whose primary erotic, psychological, emotional, and social orientation is towards other men.
ORAL SEX
Mouth-to-genital contact for sexual stimulation.

HIV+
The state of being infected with the AIDS virus.

ABSTINENCE
The choice to refrain from sexual activity.

BLEACH
Used by IV drug users to help sterilize their hypodermic needles, i.e. killing the AIDS virus.
VAGINAL INTERCOURSE
Penetration of the vagina with the penis.

IV DRUG USE
The use of drugs involving the injection of the drug, via the veins, into the user's body. Requires the use of a needle/syringe.

WATER SPORTS (also acceptable: GOLDEN SHOWERS)
Sexual activities including the use of urine, often with one participant urinating on the other.

SEMEN
Male ejaculate containing sperm. Can carry HIV.
RECREATIONAL DRUGS

Drugs that are ingested for the feelings and effects they produce in the user.

ANTIBODY

A substance produced by the body after being exposed to the AIDS virus. Also what the AIDS test searches for to diagnose infection of HIV.

DEATH

The end of life when all body systems and organs cease to function.

BLOOD

The primary body fluid.

ANTIBODY

Drugs that are ingested for the feelings and effects they produce in the user.
NONOXYNOL-9
A spermicide commonly used with condoms, diaphragms, and the sponge. Helps prevent transmission of sexually transmitted diseases.

LESBIAN
A female homosexual, i.e., a woman whose primary erotic, psychological, emotional, and social orientation is towards other women, i.e., a woman whose

AZT
One of the first HIV-meds to be effective in combating the effects of the disease.

TRANSFUSION
The introduction of blood into the body for the purpose of placement or medical treatment.
BIRTH BLOOD

The blood of the mother with which her child comes into contact during childbirth.

FISTING

The insertion of the hand into the anus or vagina for sexual stimulation and/or pleasure.

FRENCH KISSING

Kissing where the mouth and lips of both partners are open and the tongues of one person enter the mouth of the other.

HOMOPHOBIA

Prejudice against (fear or dislike of) homosexual people and homosexuality.

chori[de)m. Chori[d] comes into contact during the insertion of the hand into the anus of the mother with which her child birth comes into contact during childbirth.